2.2 Software Terms.

2.2.1 License Grant. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including payment, Solo grants to Subscriber a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, fully paid up, right and license (without the right to grant or authorize sublicenses) solely for Subscriber's internal business operations, during the Subscription Term, to (i) install and use, in object code format, the Software, (ii) use, and distribute internally a reasonable number of copies of the Documentation, provided that Subscriber must include on such copies all marks and notices; (iii) permit Authorized Persons to use the Software and Documentation as set forth in (i) and (ii) above, provided that such use by Authorized Persons must be solely for Subscriber's benefit. Subscriber's rights are subject to any scope, quantitative or usage limitations set forth in the applicable Order Form ("Scope Limitations"). Following execution of an applicable Order Form, Solo will deliver a license key to Subscriber to use the Software. The Software will be deemed to have been delivered to Subscriber upon provision of such license key, and the Software is deemed to be accepted by Subscriber upon delivery.

2.2.2 Use Restrictions. Except as expressly permitted by law, Subscriber shall not, and will not permit any Authorized Person to: (i) reverse engineer or decompile, decrypt, disassemble or otherwise reduce any Software or any portion thereof to human readable form, (ii) prepare derivative works from, modify, copy or use the Software in any manner except as expressly permitted herein; (iii) except as permitted with respect to Authorized Persons, transfer, sell, rent, lease, distribute, sublicense, loan or otherwise transfer the Software in whole or in part to any third party; (iv) circumvent the limitations on use of the Software that are imposed or preserved by any license key, (v) alter or remove any marks and notices in the Software; (vi) make available to any third party (other than Permitted Third Parties) any analysis of the results of operation of the Software, including benchmarking results, without the prior written consent of Solo, or (vii) use the Software in excess of the Scope Limitations.

2.2.3 Unlimited Enterprise License. To the extent Subscriber is granted an unlimited enterprise license in an applicable Order Form, Subscriber has no quantitative volume limitations (API calls or routes, nodes, cores or the like) with regards to such a license and is not subject to Section 2.2.4 below.

2.2.4 Use Case License. For all other licenses limited by quantitative volumes in an Order Form, Subscriber agrees to promptly notify Solo in writing as soon as Subscriber becomes aware of use of the Software in excess of any applicable Scope Limitations, and Subscriber agrees that Solo will invoice Subscriber for the difference in fees paid and the fees that should have been paid in accordance with the terms of the applicable Order Form and this Agreement. For clarity, such invoice may be issued after the expiration or termination of this Agreement. No more than once per year during the Subscription Term and for one (1) year after the termination of expiration of such Subscription Term, Solo may request confirmation of Subscriber's usage volume, in writing, of the Software based on the applicable Scope Limitations noted on an applicable Order Form. Subscriber must provide Solo the usage volume within ten (10) business days of a request from Solo. To the extent Solo does not receive a confirmation of usage volume Subscriber shall be deemed to be in material breach of this Agreement. If Subscriber's usage volume exceeds that stated on an applicable Order Form, Solo may invoice Subscriber for the excess usage.

3. PROFESSIONAL SERVICES AND SUPPORT SERVICES

3.1 Professional Services. Subscriber will provide all assistance, cooperation, information and resources reasonably necessary to enable Solo to perform the Professional Services. The details of the Professional Services to be performed will be determined on a per-project basis and described in an Order Form. Unless otherwise specified in an applicable Order Form, Professional Services must be consumed within twelve (12) months of the start date indicated on the Order Form and any unused portion will expire after such time. For the avoidance of doubt, Subscriber will be invoiced for all Professional Services contained in an Order Form even if not used. If the parties need to make changes to the Order Form, the parties will execute a new Order Form referencing the original Order Form memorializing any changes; provided that, if Subscriber's requested changes materially increase the scope of the effort required, such new Order Form will also include any additional fees owed by Subscriber. In the event Subscriber requests that Professional Services be rescheduled, Subscriber shall reimburse Solo for any additional costs or expenses incurred by Solo to reschedule the performance of such Professional Services, including without limitation, fees, charges and penalties related to airfare, visas and accommodations. Further, upon Subscriber's consent, not to be unreasonably withheld, Solo may engage qualified subcontractors to provide Professional Services, and Solo remains responsible for any subcontractor's compliance with this Agreement.

3.2 Support Services. Support Services will be delivered to Authorized Persons during the applicable Subscription Term remotely, electronically and through the Internet, and when applicable, via telephone in accordance with the Technical Support Policy and any quantitative limitations specified on an Order Form. Support Services are not delivered on-site at Subscriber's location. Solo may modify the Technical Support Policy but agrees not to materially diminish the level of Support Services during the Subscription Term.

3.3 Reservation of Rights. Solo and its licensors shall retain all rights, title and interest, including all intellectual property rights, in, to and under any Product and Documentation, all add-ons to the Product or the like, any training and other educational materials, and any deliverables created or made available as part of the Professional Services and/or Support Services, together with all modifications, updates, enhancements, improvements and derivative works in any of the foregoing (collectively, the "Solo Technology"). Authorized Persons may use Solo Technology only in connection with a Subscription, subject to the same usage rights and restrictions as such Subscription. Solo grants Subscriber a royalty-free, perpetual, non-transferable and non-exclusive license to use and reproduce any reports (excluding Solo Technology) created specifically for Subscriber in the performance of Support Services and/or Professional Services for Subscriber's internal business purposes. Subscriber's rights to Solo Technology are limited to those expressly set forth in this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to prohibit Solo from using for any purpose any general knowledge, skills, techniques or methods it learns in the course of performing Professional Services and/or Support Services.

3.4 Third Party Components. Further, Subscriber acknowledges that Solo Technology may contain third party components subject to third party or open source license terms ("Separate License"). This Agreement does not alter any rights Subscriber might have with respect to a third party component under such Separate License and, to the extent there is a conflict between the Separate License and this Agreement, the Separate License takes precedence with respect to such third party component. Separate Licenses do not impose any additional restrictions or obligations on the use of the Solo Technology under this Agreement. A list of third party components and corresponding Separate Licenses are available upon request to Solo.

3.5 Feedback. Subject to Solo's confidentiality obligations under Section 4 of this Agreement, Subscriber, its Affiliates and Permitted Third Parties, and their respective employees, may, on an entirely voluntary basis, submit feedback or suggestions, and Solo and its Affiliates may use and modify such feedback or suggestions without any restriction or payment.

4. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

4.1 Definition. "Confidential Information" means any non-public information disclosed by either party or its Affiliates to the other party that a reasonable person should understand to be confidential due to the circumstances of disclosure or the nature of the information itself. Confidential Information includes Solo Technology, all materials and communications concerning either party's business, including, without limitation, pricing, reports, security information and assessments, technical information and the terms of this Agreement, and all notes, summaries and analyses of the foregoing prepared by the receiving party. Confidential Information excludes information: (i) was or becomes generally known to the public other than as a result of a disclosure by the receiving party in violation of this Agreement; (ii) was known, without restriction as to use or disclosure, by the receiving party prior to receiving such information from the disclosing party; (iii) is rightfully acquired by the receiving party from a third party who has the right to disclose it and who provides it without restriction as to use or disclosure; or (iv) is independently developed by the receiving party without access to any Confidential Information of the disclosing party.

4.2 Use of Confidential Information. The receiving party shall keep the Confidential Information in strict confidence during the Agreement Term and thereafter. Except as otherwise required by law or approved in writing by the disclosing party, the receiving party may not disclose any Confidential Information: (i) to any person or entity other than Authorized Persons to the extent required to be able to access and use a Subscription and/or Professional Services; (ii) to a third party without the disclosing party's prior written authorization (except in connection with (a) the enforcement of a party's rights under this Agreement or (b) a potential merger, acquisition or sales of all or substantially all of a party's assets).

4.3 Compelled Disclosure. If the receiving party is requested or legally compelled (by valid and effective subpoena or order issued by either a court of competent jurisdiction), or is required by a regulatory body, to disclose Confidential Information of the disclosing party, the receiving party shall, unless prohibited by force of law: (i) provide the disclosing party with prompt notice (so long as time permits) of any such request or requirement before disclosure so that the disclosing party may seek an appropriate protective order or other appropriate remedy; and (ii) provide reasonable assistance to the disclosing party in obtaining any such protective order. If the receiving party is nonetheless legally compelled or otherwise required to disclose, the receiving party will furnish only that portion of the Confidential Information that is legally required and shall make reasonable efforts to obtain reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded any part of the Confidential Information so disclosed.

4.4 Return of Confidential Information. All documents and other tangible objects containing or representing Confidential Information that have been disclosed by either party to the other party, and all copies in the possession of the other party, are and will remain the property of the disclosing party. At the disclosing party's written request, the receiving party shall promptly return or destroy all of those documents or objects; provided that, the receiving party may retain copies of such Confidential Information (i) for archival purposes, (ii) as required by applicable law, and (iii) to the extent such copies are electronically stored in accordance with the receiving party's document retention or back-up policies or procedures (including, without limitation, those regarding electronic communications), in each case, so long as such Confidential Information is kept confidential as required under this Agreement.

5. FEES, PAYMENT AND TAXES

5.1 Fees and Payment. Subscriber agrees to pay for all fees due under each Order Form or otherwise under this Agreement within thirty (30) days of receipt of an applicable invoice. Payments will be made without the right of set-off or chargeback. All Order Forms are non-cancellable, and all fees are non-refundable and based on the Subscription(s) and/or Professional Services purchased, not actual usage.

5.2 Late Payment and Interest. Any amount not paid when due will be subject to interest of 1.5% of the unpaid balance or the highest rate permitted by applicable law, whichever is less. Subscriber will reimburse Solo for any costs to collect late payments.

5.3 Taxes. All fees stated on an Order Form are exclusive of any applicable sales, use, value-added, import or export and excise taxes levied upon the delivery or use of the taxable components if any of the Subscription and/or Professional Services purchased by Subscriber under this Agreement (collectively, "Taxes"). Taxes do not include taxes on the net income of Solo or any of its Affiliates. Unless Subscriber provides evidence of an exemption from the relevant Taxes, Subscriber will pay and be solely responsible for all Taxes and will gross up any payment to include such Taxes. If a taxing authority pursues Solo for unpaid Taxes for which Subscriber is responsible for under this Agreement and which Subscriber did not pay Solo, Solo may invoice Subscriber and Subscriber will pay such Taxes, including all applicable interest and penalties, to Solo or directly to the taxing authority with receipt of payment to Solo.

5.4 Future Functionality. Subscriber's purchase is not dependent on any oral or written comments made by Solo regarding future functionality or features. Subscriber understands and agrees that any features or functions of Products, which are not currently available or not currently available as a GA release, may not be delivered on time or at all. Subscriber is purchasing Subscriptions and/or Professional Services based solely upon functionality and features that are currently available at the time of executing an Order Form. The development, release and timing of any features or functionality remains in Solo's sole discretion.

5.5 Reseller Transactions. If Subscriber places an order for Subscriptions or Professional Services from an authorized Solo reseller the terms of this Agreement apply to Subscriber's use of such Subscriptions or Professional Services except for (1) payment and taxes which shall be addressed in the agreement between the reseller and Subscriber and (2), where reseller manages Support Services on behalf of Subscriber, the Technical Support Policy.

Termination of this Agreement will terminate all Order Forms in effect.

6.3 Effect of Termination. Upon termination of this Agreement or an applicable Order Form, any licenses to Subscriptions and/or Solo Technology shall terminate and Subscriber will cease use of all Subscriptions and/or Solo Technology. 7.1.5 Remedies for Warranty Breach. In the event of a breach of any of the foregoing warranties in Section 7.1.1 through 7.1.4, Subscriber's sole and exclusive remedy is limited to correction of the non-conforming Products or re-performance of the Support Services or Professional Services, as applicable, and, if correction or re-performance is not commercially feasible within thirty (30) days of receipt of notice from Subscriber, then Subscriber may terminate the applicable Order Form upon written notice to Solo, and Solo shall promptly refund to Subscriber all prepaid, unused fees paid by Subscriber to Solo under such terminated Order Form. The foregoing is conditioned upon Subscriber notifying Solo within thirty (30) days that Subscriber becomes aware of the condition giving rise to a claim during the Subscription Term.

8. SOLO INDEMNIFICATION

8.1 IP Claims. Solo will, at Solo's expense, either defend Subscriber from or settle any claim, proceeding or suit brought by a third party against Subscriber and its Authorized Persons, alleging that Subscriber's use of a Product or Support Services during the Subscription Term infringes or misappropriates such third party's intellectual property rights ("IP Claim"). Solo will indemnify Subscriber and its Authorized Persons from and pay: (i) all damages, costs and attorneys' fees finally awarded against Subscriber and its Authorized Persons to such third party to the extent resulting from such IP Claim; (ii) any settlement amounts consented to by Solo in connection with such IP Claim; and (iii) all out-of-pocket costs incurred within five (5) days of receipt of such IP Claim by Subscriber and its Authorized Persons prior to tendering the defense of an IP Claim to Solo. For the avoidance of doubt, (1) any costs incurred beyond five (5) days after receipt will be at Subscriber's own cost and expense, and (2) Solo will not pay for any out-of-pocket costs incurred by Subscriber once the IP Claim is tendered to Solo.

8.2 Exclusions. 8.3 IP Claim Remedies. Solo may at its sole expense and option: (i) obtain the right to continuing using the affected Product or Solo Technology; (ii) replace or modify the infringing technology with substantially equivalent functionality to avoid the infringement, or (iii) if neither (i) or (ii) are commercially practicable in Solo's reasonable opinion, terminate Subscriber's right to use the affected portion of the Product or Solo Technology and, upon Subscriber's written request, terminate all affected Order Forms and promptly refund to Subscriber all prepaid unused fees paid by Subscriber to Solo under such terminated Order Forms.

8.4 IP Claim Conditions. Subscriber must: (i) give Solo prompt notice of the IP Claim, provided that failure to do so will only relieve Solo of its obligation under this Section 8 to the extent Solo's ability to defend the IP Claim is materially prejudiced, (ii) grant Solo full and complete control over the defense and settlement of the IP Claim; provided that Solo will not enter into any settlement agreement that requires any admission of liability or affirmative obligation on the part of Subscriber other than the obligation to cease using the affected Product or Solo Technology unless Subscriber consents otherwise in writing, and (iii) provide reasonable assistance in connection with the defense and settlement of the IP Claim. Subscriber may participate in the defense of the IP Claim at Subscriber's own expense. This Section 8 states the entire liability and obligations of Solo, and exclusive remedy of Subscriber, for any actual or alleged infringement of any intellectual property right related to a Product, Support Services, Professional Services and/or Solo Technology.

9. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

9.1 Indirect Damages Disclaimer. TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY OR ANY THIRD PARTY FOR ANY INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES, OR LOST PROFITS, LOST DATA, LOSS OF BUSINESS OR COSTS FOR SUBSTITUTE GOODS, OF ANY KIND, WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT OR TORT, INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE, ARISING OUT OF A PARTY'S PERFORMANCE WITH OR FAILURE TO PERFORM THIS AGREEMENT.

Solo and Subscriber shall abide by the requirements of 41 CFR §§ 60-1.4(a), 60-300.5(a), and 60-741-5(a). These regulations prohibit discrimination against qualified individuals based on their status as protected veterans or individuals with disabilities, and prohibit discrimination against all individuals based on their race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or national origin. 10.14 Non-waiver. Failure, neglect or delay by any party to enforce the provisions of this Agreement or its rights or remedies at any time, will not be construed as a waiver of such party's rights under this Agreement, and no waiver will be binding unless made in an express writing signed by the waiving party.

10.15 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with any Order Forms executed by the parties, and the Technical Support Policy, each of which is incorporated by reference, constitutes the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior proposals, understanding, agreements and communications between the parties, whether oral or written, regarding such subject matter, including any non-disclosure agreements. Headings are provided for convenience only and will not be used to interpret the substance of this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the parties hereby expressly acknowledge and agree that if Subscriber issues any purchase orders or similar documents in connection with its purchase of Subscriptions or Professional Services, it shall do so only for its own internal, administrative purposes and not with the intent to provide any contractual terms, which are hereby deemed rejected and extraneous to this Agreement. The parties may amend this Agreement only by a written amendment signed by both parties. To facilitate execution, this Agreement may be executed by one or more of the parties in the form of an "Electronic Record," as such term is defined in the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act at 15 U.S.C. §7001 et seq.
