

Gantt Academy

CLEMSON
HARVEY AND LUCINDA GANTT
MULTICULTURAL CENTER

CLEMSON
INCLUSION AND EQUITY

Experiencing Diversity
• • • and Inclusion • • •
at Clemson University

Harvey and Lucinda Gantt Multicultural Center

The Harvey and Lucinda Gantt Multicultural Center

is part of the Division of Inclusion and Equity and is committed to creating diverse learning environments that enhance the intercultural competence of our students. The center supports and advocates for the needs of all students, challenges students to think critically about themselves and their communities, provides engaging experiential learning opportunities and empowers students to be positive change agents.

The purpose of the Gantt Academy is to:

- Give Clemson University alumni and friends a glimpse into student life around diversity and inclusion in today's climate
- Develop participants' skillsets for greater intercultural capacity and advocacy
- Engage participants with current students and events

Proposed First On-Campus Meeting

- Overview of Division of Inclusion and Equity
- Overview of Gantt Center
- Diverse Student Panel
- Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI) Assessment
- Campus Discovery Activity
- Volunteer at Grill and Greet

Commitment to the Gantt Academy Program

- One academic year (two semesters) 2020-21
- Two on-campus meetings (one per semester)
 - Includes volunteering at two Gantt Multicultural Center events
- Two videoconferences (one per semester)
- $1,963 per participant for one academic year participation
 - Funding is directed to the Gantt Multicultural Center operations to support programming aligned with its mission

To sign up to participate in Gantt Academy go to: bit.ly/GanttAcademy

Contact: L. Corrine Grant liza@clemson.edu
Director for Development and Alumni Relations