INTERNATIONAL COLLABORATION

THE KAIFI AZMI GLOBAL INDIA (KAVI-2022), facilitated by Mijwan Welfare Society, is one good opportunity wherein the Students can collaborate internationally. University of Southampton (United Kingdom), GRD College of Science (India) and University of Western Australia (Australia) have collaborated and worked virtually to gain hands-on experience. In this, the Students will be undertaking live community oriented projects, addressing real life challenges in real times in rural India. Successful interns will work on specific projects for a maximum period of 8 weeks, 20 hours maximum per week, through digital platforms. This internship programme contributes to the sustainable development goals set up by the United Nations General Assembly.

During the 8-week internship, NISHANTHINI of the MBA had the privilege of being a part of the Girls Education Project, an initiative aimed at developing a tool to analyze the learning capacity of girls in grades 9 to 12, specifically focusing on the English language. From June 21st to August 15th, she embarked on an incredible journey that allowed her to apply her personal skills and experiences to solve a real-life problem. This involved designing and implementing various assessments and evaluations to gauge the proficiency of the girls in English.

One aspect that made this internship particularly special was the opportunity to collaborate with Students from different universities across various countries. The internship provided her a platform to enhance her technical skills and also nurtured her interpersonal and cross-cultural communication abilities. This global perspective fostered a rich exchange of ideas and diverse approaches to tackle the task at hand.

Functioning of the Autonomy

Under the Scheme of Autonomy, the College brought-in all possible learner-centric requisites to update/revise and redesign the curricula of the various disciplines under the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) through the respective Boards of Studies to ensure academic brilliance par excellence during 2022-2023. During the year, Boards of Studies meetings were convened and subject professionals from renowned Institutions / Corporate Sectors and distinguished alumni were invited for discussions to enhance the Course Structure. As per the guidelines of the Bharathiar University, from the 2021 batch onwards the mark split up of the Continuous Assessment related to the Term End Examinations is fixed as 50:50 respectively related to the UG and PG programmes. In addition, the University had also instructed to introduce the passing minimum marks for Continuous Assessment to highlight the importance of the Continuous Assessment components which was implemented in letter and spirit.

The Twentieth Academic Council Meeting of the College was convened on 30.8.2022 to scrutinize and approve the changes/updates in the various courses, Schemes and the Syllabi enhanced by the respective Boards of Studies.

The results were published with an overall pass percentage of 94.56% related to the UG and 97.42% in the PG programmes. Special Supplementary Term End Examinations for the various UG & PG Degree/Diploma programmes were conducted during the month of June, 2023 for the benefit of the detained outgoing final years who are not able to get their degree because of the arrears in only one subject among all the semesters. Thirty five Students had the eligibility to appear for the Special Supplementary Examinations, whereas thirty three Students applied for the supplementary and twenty seven Students have cleared their arrear examinations, secured their degrees. The pass percentage of the special supplementary Term End Examinations is 81.82. All these were accomplished through the excellent cooperation of the Faculty.

The online direct verification system under the Global Document Authentication System (GDAS) Technology developed by Myeasydocs enables the document verification process at ease. The mark sheets and the other documents issued by the College are verified through the online verification process 'Direct Verify' (www.grdinstitutions.directverify.in) by various employers and educational Institutions across the world. Also, i-transcripts facility enables to obtain transcripts within the working hours through online for higher studies. Students who want to study in Canada, through the World Education Services (WES), the College signed a MoU with WES to e-transfer the transcripts, which will enable our Students to reduce their duration of processing.

INTERNATIONAL COLLOBORATION

THE KAIFI AZMI GLOBAL INDIA (KAVI-2022), facilitated by the Mijwan Welfare Society, is one good opportunity wherein the Students can collaborate internationally. The University of Southampton (United Kingdom), Dr.GRD College of Science (Autonomous) (India) and the University of Western Australia (Australia) had collaborated and worked virtually to gain hands-on experience. In this, the Students will be undertaking live community oriented projects, addressing real life challenges in real times in rural India. Successful interns will work on specific projects for a maximum period of 8 weeks, 20 hours maximum per week, through digital platforms. This internship programme contributes to the sustainable development goals set up by the United Nations General Assembly.

During the 8-week internship, Ms.NISHANTHINI, a Student of the MBA had the privilege of being a part of the Girls Education Project, an initiative aimed at developing a tool to analyze the learning capacity of girls in grades 9 to 12, specifically focusing on the English language. From June 21st to August 15th, 2022, she embarked on an incredible journey that allowed her to apply her personal skills and experiences to solve a real-life problem. This involved designing and implementing various assessments and evaluations to gauge the proficiency of the girls in English.

One aspect that made this internship particularly special was the opportunity to collaborate with the Students from different Universities across various countries. The internship provided her a platform to enhance her technical skills and also nurtured her interpersonal and cross-cultural communication abilities. This global perspective fostered a rich exchange of ideas and diverse approaches to tackle the task at hand.

Elephant whisperers continue mission in TN

PAN SELVA RESORT & SPA RESORTS
MADRAS

While the 'Elephant Whisperers' was winning an Oscar, thousands of whisperers away one of the film's main characters, an elephant whisperer, A. Bannan, was on a mission to prevent free abandoned elephants in the Pan Selva Resorts.

The 'Elephant Whisperers' is about a group of men who have spent their lives in the Pan Selva Resorts, capturing the bond between the people and the elephants. While one of the film characters, A. Bannan, is part of a team, he was struck by the moment of the two elephants who were abandoned in the Pan Selva Resorts.

The same team is also trying to help a baby elephant with a head injury. Bannan said he had known what an Oscar award was all along.

"Only with all these back to back releases, messages have to be spoken about elephants," he said.

"I have expected such a success but the message is extremely happy. All this time, I have been working in the Pan Selva Resorts. I dedicate this victory to all the elephant whisperers."

A Free Plant Tissue Culture Training Programme for School Students organized by
The GRD Trust, Coimbatore- 641 037
Dr.G.R.Damodaran College of Science, (Autonomous) Coimbatore- 641 014

Date : 26.12.2022 to 28.12.2022

Dr.G.R.Damodaran College of Science (Autonomous) has a rich experience of organizing activities among the Students such as conducting courses in Science & Technology, Seminars, Workshops, Exhibitions and Training programmes. The Dr.G.R.Damodaran College of Science, since its inception, is committed to the spread of the awareness about Science and Technology among the various School Students from class 9 to 12 and the Students of Science and Technology in higher technical/professional education. Plant Tissue Culture Training was imparted to the Students of the GRG Matric. Higher Secondary School. 50 Students of Class 12 attended the training programme. The training is designed to provide the Plant Tissue Culture training through theory sessions and lab exercises. Topics included in the training are Principles and applications of the various facets of plant tissue culture, aseptic techniques, basics of plant cells' requirements, media compositions, media preparations, and sterilization techniques – glassware, media and plant sterilizations. Specialized techniques of micropropagation for the large scale multiplication of plants, haploid production through anther culture and embryo culture in also included.

Objectives:

The objective of the Plant Tissue Culture Training is to improve and ignite the interest of the Students thro' experimentation and discussion. The hands-on training introduces the basic concepts related to the scientific methods, such as making observations, predictions and conducting experiments. Ensuring promotion and outreach for and with the children bridges the gap between the Institution and those it is meant to serve. The core objectives are as follows:

- 1) To train the manpower suited to the needs of the Plant Tissue Culture Industry and Research centers.
- 2) To impart advanced training in Plant Tissue Culture Technology to develop entrepreneurial skills.

Plant tissue culture is used by many companies and nurseries to propagate plants in a disease-free environment. Technicians who work in this area use many biotechnology skills. The career description related to the plant tissue culture technicians is to get employed in companies and nurseries to propagate plants in a sterile environment. There are many advantages in growing plants related to the tissue culture. Propagating plants thro' tissue culture allows growers to produce the clones of one plant, thus ensuring that all plants comprise similar traits. Cultured plants mature quickly and can be kept disease-free. This method also allows scientists to genetically modify plants and screen for new traits. Many companies use plant tissue culture techniques.

Tissue culture is used to develop thousands of genetically identical plants from one single parent plant known as somaclones, and this process is known as micropropagation. The method offers an advantage over the other methods as it can be used to develop disease free plants from disease-ridden plants thro' the use of their meristems (apical and axillary) as explants.

Since this method produces new plantlets by the score of thousands, it has been used extensively for the production of commercially important plants including food plants like tomato, banana, apple, orange, pear, etc. The most notable example of the application of micropropagation was observed in the farming of orchids as it rose exponentially due to the availability of millions of plantlets produced the tissue culture methods.

Course Outcome

The objective of the course is to provide basic and applied training in the subject for the development of the skills for a successful career in the entrepreneurial aspects. The technique has been widely applied for large-scale production of quality plants including fruit plants, ornamentals, plantation crops, tree species, spices and condiments. The demand for tissue culture derived plants has been growing exponentially across the globe. A large number of tissue culture based industries have been engaged in the commercial production of selected plant species in India and abroad. There is a huge demand for trained manpower in this sector.

VERMICOMPOST PRODUCTION UNIT

Skill orientation training for vermicompost production

The training programme imparted theory as well as practical (hands-on) exposure related to vermicomposting and the management of organic wastes in agriculture for productivity improvement and livelihood security. UG Biotechnology Students participated in the programme. Various subject experts from the School of Biotechnology covered several important aspects on the relevance of vermicompost in the present scenario, species diversity, biology of earthworms and their role in bio transformation of organic wastes, process of earthworms inoculation and factors influencing the decomposition process, water and nutrient management, care and maintenance during vermicomposting, sieving and the packaging of vermicompost and relevant safety practices associated with the compost making and use.

OBJECTIVES

- As a part of the curriculum, Career oriented Programmes (COP), Vermi-technology lab practical's were also conducted for the Biotechnology Students.
- To impart Vermicompost training programmes related to the UG Biotechnology Students.
- Biotechnology Students initiated research project activities in the field of Vermi-technology.
- To produce a good quality Vermicompost thro' the use of crop residues, weed biomass, vegetable wastes, leaf litter and kitchen bio-waste from the Hostel and the Canteen gathered from the Dr.G.R.Damodaran College of Science (Autonomous), College campus.
- Application of Vermi-compost to all the trees and shrubs in our College campus as well as the plants in the Mist chamber to enhance their growth.

The Vermicompost unit consists of 4 pits. The pit size is 14'x6'x 1½' with a total capacity of 126 cft. The pits constructed in the College area in the open yard thro' laying thatched roofs built over them. This helps to maintain the optimum moisture of 40%-50% and a temperature in the 20-30 degrees range. Higher moisture level also is fatal for earthworms as they cannot withstand high temperature. A wire mesh cover over the pit, protects the pits from cats, dogs and birds.

Production process

For the demonstration purposes, vegetable waste materials will be collected from the Hostel kitchen. Cow dung is also purchased from local farmers. The kitchen waste and other degradable waste material and cow dung will be mixed in the ratio of 8:1 and placed in the vermicompost pit. This feed mixture will be allowed to decompose for at least 2-3 weeks. During this time, the mass heats up, and if earthworms are inoculated during this period, they will perish. Worms should be inoculated after this period.

MIST CHAMBER – A PLANT PROPAGATION UNIT

The Mist Chamber was established in the year 2006 by the Department of Biotechnology, Dr.G.R.Damodaran College of Science (Autonomous). During 2018 it was renovated with the objectives to enable the Students to develop their skills related to the Green House Executive employment, Entrepreneurship and Professional careers in the fields of the service sectors such as High-Tech Farming and Marketing. The Mist Chamber process helps to enhance the Students with multifaceted skills and to nurture intertwining competence in the field of agriculture. This will make Students acquire the skills of Green House Farming and Entrepreneurship.

Nursery plants propagated by cuttings are grown in the mist chambers. In the Mist Chamber, the relative humidity is maintained artificially at a high level with the help of mist installations, which spray water under pressure. Fog formation induces rooting and acclimatization. High relative humidity facilitates better root initiation besides the cooling effect prevents the cutting from drying out. This method results in faster rooting of the cuttings, create optimum microclimate for a better root initiation, development and a higher success rate in the propagation of the hard wood cuttings. Temperature and humidity control in the mist chamber is effected through automated control systems.

The mist chamber is used for research purposes as well as propagation of garden plants.

OBJECTIVES

- To Impart training to the UG Students and the entrepreneurs in the nursery technologies for horticultural crops
- As a part of the Curriculum, the Career oriented Programme (COP - Agro-Industrial Practices) Plant propagation Practices, lab practicals are also conducted related to the Biotechnology Students.
- The Biotechnology Students had initiated many Research project activities in the field of plant propagation practices.
- Medicinal plants are grown through the Hydroponics methods.
- Economical cultivation thro' optimum utilization of space can be achieved.

Advantages of the mist chamber

- This method results in the faster rooting of the cuttings.
- Create optimum Microclimate for better root initiation and development.
- A Higher success rate was found in propagation of hard wood cuttings.
