

Wednesday Evenings at the Genome!

A summer 2024 public lecture series presented by the University of Washington Department of Genome Sciences

JULY 10TH
ROBERT WATERSTON, MD, PHD

The Human Genome Project:
from the frying pan into the fire

JULY 17TH
ALISON FEDER, PHD

Mapping intra-lung bacterial migration reveals pathways to persistence

JULY 24TH
SUMAN JAYADEV, MD

How immune cells can drive
Alzheimer's disease

JULY 31ST
PHILIP ABITUA, PHD

The evolutionary story of embryos

6PM Presentations

7PM Refreshments

South Foege Auditorium S060

3720 15th Ave NE

Seattle WA 98195

A series designed for a general audience with no genetics background

Free Admission!

<https://www.gs.washington.edu/news/publiclecture.htm>