The activities of IBG - Chamber of Commerce include:

- Regular Members Only Meets: IBG organizes meetings exclusively for registered members, providing a platform for members to gather and exchange views, ideas, and business opportunities at regular intervals.
- Government Connect: IBG has established connections with the government and facilitates opportunities for members to meet government secretaries, ministers, and officials. This allows members to engage with government representatives, which might be challenging to do individually without specific agendas or appointments.
- Visit to Consul Generals: As an Honorary Consul of Mali, IBG leverages this position to organize visits to Consul Generals of various countries. Members are given the opportunity to meet and have discussions with Consul Generals, enhancing international networking and business prospects.

- Meetings with Top Businessmen and Industrialists: IBG arranges monthly meetings where members can interact with renowned business houses and industrialists. This provides members with valuable insights and potential collaboration opportunities.
- Consular Panel Discussions: IBG conducts periodic panel discussions with Consuls, offering members access to Consuls and diplomatic representatives. This access is typically challenging to obtain independently, and these discussions provide a platform for networking and building international relations.
- Potboiler Networking Event: The Potboiler is a notable networking event organized by IBG. It brings together high-level businesspeople, government secretaries, and Consuls, creating a dynamic environment for networking and fostering business connections.
- Collaboration with Indian and Overseas Chambers: IBG has affiliations with more than 80 Indian and Overseas Chambers. This collaboration facilitates regular interactions between IBG members and members of these chambers, opening doors to extensive business opportunities.
- Mentoring by Business Guru Vikash Mittersain: Exclusive to members, IBG offers mentoring sessions conducted by renowned business guru Vikash Mittersain. These sessions delve into members' specific business issues and challenges, providing valuable suggestions and guidance. Many members have experienced significant positive changes in their businesses through such mentoring.
- IBG Knowledge Café: This monthly event features an invited top business star who shares their insights and advice. Members have the opportunity to learn from successful business leaders and gain valuable knowledge and inspiration for their own ventures.

In essence, IBG - Chamber of Commerce offers a wide array of activities and opportunities designed to foster networking, knowledge exchange, business expansion, and partnership among its members.
