

Science and Math Learning Center Etiquette Policy

- If at all possible, be in a distraction-free environment (for both audio and video).
- To best build rapport with others, have your camera on.
- Dress appropriately.
- Be mindful that everything in your camera frame is visible – use a provided virtual background if you would like.
- Be respectful.
- Be careful with your tone – occasionally things can be taken out of context, especially in a virtual environment.