

Annual Report

Fiscal Year
2022

08.01.2021 - 07.31.2022

Welcome

This year marks a historic achievement. As current Interim CEO and founder of The Trevor Project with Randy Stone and Celeste Lecesne back in 1998, I'm filled with tremendous pride as we begin celebrating Trevor's 25th anniversary! That pride is equally matched with gratitude for the many passionate, dedicated individuals who have immeasurably contributed to Trevor's long-standing history successfully providing 24/7 life-saving crisis services and suicide prevention programs for LGBTQ young people.

While Julian and I celebrate and applaud all that's been accomplished over the past 25 years, we clearly recognize how much more needs to be done. Our Annual Report reflects crucial progress made over the past year and shares our deepening understanding of the complex mental health needs of the young people we serve. Our mission to end suicide and build a world where every young LGBTQ person sees a brighter future for themselves – a world where, hopefully, young people no longer need Trevor's services – remains as essential and consequential as ever.

One of our greatest accomplishments over 25 years? The community that Trevor's built – from the young people we have served and saved, to staff, volunteers, partners, donors, allies and supporters. All have been crucial in helping us ensure LGBTQ young people have a community available 24/7 that supports and uplifts them in moments of crisis.

Our work continues to have an enormous impact. Yet, we also see that the wider representation and visibility the LGBTQ community achieved over the past 25 years is being met with a virulent backlash. LGBTQ young people face dangerous rhetoric daily. A record number of bills targeting transgender and nonbinary youth are introduced and debated in state legislatures across the country on an ongoing basis. Captured within are quotes from some of the young people reaching out directly to us. They help our entire community understand just how much Trevor is needed at this moment.

The Trevor Project itself is experiencing targeted attacks that seek to undermine the value of our affirming suicide prevention programs and prevent LGBTQ young people from reaching out to us in crisis. In the face of these attacks – and recognizing that the public health suicide crisis among LGBTQ youth is unrelenting – we fiercely recommit to being here for the generations of LGBTQ young people to come. We will unwaveringly provide the crisis support and safe community they need and so richly deserve.

I'm really grateful for TrevorSpace.

I live in a small conservative town, and don't have many like-minded people I can talk to. There are some LGBT events in the closest city, but they're all 30-45 minutes away and I don't have my license.

Having something like TrevorSpace that is accessible is very helpful, because [having] a sense of community and people who I can talk to is very important to me.

We successfully passed ordinances banning conversion therapy in 54 cities and helped to defeat anti-LGBTQ bills at a rate of 10 to 1.

Trevor’s leaders attended President Biden’s historic signing of an executive order aimed at ending conversion therapy, collecting LGBTQ-inclusive data across the federal government, protecting access to gender-affirming care, and investing in suicide prevention and mental health resources in schools.

After years of lobbying and organizing, we successfully saw the adoption of 988 as the three-digit code for the National Suicide and Crisis Lifeline, and also secured future funding for LGBTQ-specialized 988 services.

LGBTQ young people who contact the

When I was younger, I did not see a future for myself. Now, doing this work with and for my community, I try to be someone that my younger self would feel safe with and seen by. I came to Trevor because I believe wholeheartedly in our mission to end suicide among LGBTQ young people by creating a world in which all LGBTQ young people see a bright future for themselves.

I'm proud of and grateful for the work that I'm able to do with volunteers in service of that mission.
